

Message from Mrs Millsop:

Parents' meetings were well attended again this week and I know that staff enjoyed the opportunity to share your child's progress with you as well as discuss next steps too. Mrs Taylor, who is taking over from Mr Farmer after Easter, attended many of the meetings for Jay class, as part of the ongoing handover process.

Today, we have celebrated our love of reading for World Book Day. Thank you for the fabulous efforts with hat making which we enjoyed in a mammoth parade this afternoon. Each year group have looked at a number of picture books from a significant author. They have explored these books through writing and Art which they have shared with the school this afternoon. Children have also enjoyed paring up with other classes in other parts of the school to listen to and read their stories too. A memorable day! Thank you to staff and the English team for organising it for us all.

News

Church News: On Monday Rev'd Adams will be leading a final collective worship for the school, before his retirement later in March. We are grateful for all that he has given to the school; his stories, our link with Bwaziba school and his contribution to the governance of school.

Comic Relief: On Friday 17th March, school will be supporting this cause by holding a non uniform day. Suggested contribution is £1 please. Chef Kath will be selling cookies for 50p. Please see Parent Pay next week.

Values: COURAGE

Mrs McLaughlin led our worship this week, when we had the opportunity to think more about Spirituality. We considered the 'wows' - when we are amazed by life, 'ows' - when we consider things that are tricky and 'nows' - when we pause and reflect on what might be happening right now. Thinking about spirituality in this way, helps us to think about the multidimensional aspects of spirituality.
